

Suggestions for Parents or Leaders

Your child needs your example and leadership as he tries to form good devotional habits.

You can help by:

- Having your own daily quiet time with Jesus daily;
- enthusiastically sharing some of the inspiration and insights you receive during your quiet time;
- leading out in family worship daily;
- helping your child choose a wise time and place for his quiet time;
- being a part of your child's quiet time until he is able and eager to continue on his own.

Children may use a ruler to make straight lines on a piece of paper. The lines should cross each other to make various shapes.

The child may color in a box each time he/she has a quiet time.

Celebrate the establishment of the "quiet time" habit when all the boxes are filled. Then start a new chart.
