

John M. Nielson
Capo on 3rd fret

John M. Nielson

1. When Sam-uel was just a small boy in the tem-ple, One eve-ning he
2. Then Sam-uel rose quick-ly and ran in to E - li To see what the
3. The boy in the tem-ple had learned a great les-son; He used it when
4. The years have now passed and the Lord is still look-ing; O - be - di - ent climbed in - to bed;

old man might need;
he was a man.
chil - dren He seeks.

Then he heard a small voice speak-ing
But the voice was not E - li's and When - ev - er God spoke, Sam-uel
And we must be read - y, just out in the dark-ness, And "Sam-uel" was all that it said.

E - li said frank-ly, "God's voice is the voice you must said, "I am lis-t'ning; I'll fol - low each step of Your plan."
like lit - tle Sam - uel, To lis - ten each time that He heed."

speaks.

Say, "Speak, Lord, for Your ser - vant hear - eth;

E7 Em7 A7 D D7
 Speak, Lord, I'm lis - t'ning to You. I prom - ise to say what You

G G° D/A A7 ¹ D G°
 want me to say, And to do what You want me to do."

D/A A7 D D.C. ¹/₂ D A7 D
 (to vs. 3) do for You!"